

Mission Statement

To promote and encourage the adoption and full implementation of a societal system which is built on the embedded foundations of universal, active, empowered, participative, democratic citizenship which guarantees at its core, the unconditional, equal and inalienable rights of every citizen regardless of individual diversity